Dear Chamber members,

On behalf of the Chamber Board of Directors I would like to invite our small business owners to a Virtual COVID-19 Informational Meeting. There will be representatives from multiple city/county agencies giving updates on the current situation and to help answer questions that you may have concerning your business. Also, please watch for the daily email updates from the Chamber with the most current info available and links to valuable resources to include the links below.

Please stay safe and as best you can continue to support our local businesses.

Sincerely,

Stay-at-Home Public Health Emergency Order for Johnson County, Missouri

JOHNSON COUNTY, MO (March 31, 2020) In an effort to slow the spread and better protect our community from COVID-19, Johnson County Community Health Services (JCCHS) has issued a stay-at-home order beginning 12:01 p.m. on Wednesday, April 1, 2020 until 11:59 p.m. on Thursday, April 30, 2020. The deadline could be rescinded or extended dependent upon the continued spread of the coronavirus. This includes all municipalities within Johnson County.

The JCCHS Board of Trustees in a collaborative effort with the Johnson County Commissioners approved the order during a special board meeting on Tuesday, March 31, 2020. The decision was unanimous.

“As this continues to spread not only across our region, but also our nation, this is another step Johnson County Community Health Services is taking to help slow the spread of the coronavirus. We are urging everyone to do their part and stay home, practice social distancing and create a safe environment for our families, friends and our communities,” said Mary Thaut, JCCHS administrator.

The order requires all residents in Johnson County to remain at home except for activities essential to the health and safety of themselves, family or friends. Essential activities include:

- Working in an essential business
- Obtaining supplies or necessary services (including but not limited to food, medicine, cleaning supplies, and pet food).
- Caring for a family member or loved one
- Seeking medical care
- Exercising and maintaining personal health.

Individuals are strongly encouraged to practice social distancing and to stay home if not engaging in these activities. All non-essential businesses or non-essential operations must cease in-person operations. Operations may continue if business activities can be performed remotely.

Essential businesses are those that provide critical services or support for daily living, personal health, or safety. A complete list can be found on the order and on the FAQ page of the Johnson County Community Health Services website. Vulnerable populations including the elderly and those with underlying health conditions must stay-at-home. For those who are younger and in good health, please reach out to those in this group and pick up needed items for those who cannot get items themselves. Remember to drop off items at the door and to not make personal contact. We are continuously monitoring the evolving situation and working to ensure our community is prepared.

We ask the public to please continue practicing measures to prevent the spread of COVID-19 while under this Order.

If you suspect that you have COVID-19 or have been exposed to someone with COVID-19, call your healthcare provider to let them know before seeking care. It is critical that your provider is aware you may have COVID-19 prior to your arrival at a healthcare facility, and that you follow all instructions for arriving at a healthcare facility.

For more information please visit our website at www.Johnsoncountyhealth.org or call the State of Missouri Hotline at 1-877-435-8411. Effective Businesses Guidelines can be found here: <http://johnsoncountyhealth.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/03/Stay-at-Home-Order-Signed-Effective-04.01.2020.pdf>

CORONAVIRUS EMERGENCY LOANS Small Business Guide and Checklist

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act allocated $350 billion to help small businesses keep workers employed amid the pandemic and economic downturn. Known as the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP), the initiative provides 100% federally guaranteed loans to small businesses. Importantly, these loans may be forgiven if borrowers maintain their payrolls during the crisis or restore their payrolls afterward.

HR SIMPLE NEWS FLASH: COVID-19 Posting Requirements – Effective Right NOW!

We know you love a good posting requirement, so listen up: the DOL just issued the Families First Coronavirus Act poster. Covered employers must post this notice immediately in a conspicuous place with your other employment law posters. But that's not all folks, you must also notify remote workers either by snail mail, email or posting on an employee information website. The DOL issued guidance stating that the leave requirements are effective April 1, 2020.

Assistance for Small Businesses:

The Paycheck Protection Program prioritizes millions of Americans employed by small businesses by authorizing up to $349 billion toward job retention and certain other expenses. Small businesses and eligible nonprofit organizations, Veterans organizations, and Tribal businesses described in the Small Business Act, as well as individuals who are self-employed or are independent contractors, are eligible if they also meet program size standards.

Latest Update Concerning COVID-19 and WPR

WARRENSBURG, MO (April 1, 2020) – In accordance with the Johnson County Community Health Services (JCCHS) Public Health Emergency Stay-At-Home Order, and the City of Warrensburg’s Emergency Declaration to help reduce the risk and prevent the spread of COVID-19, the Warrensburg Community Center, which includes the Indoor Aquatic Center, gymnasium, walking track and Fitness Center, as well as all parks facilities, which include playgrounds, shelters, benches/tables, ball fields, tennis courts and the ABC Building, will be closed through April 30, 2020, and all recreational programming, leagues, sports, activities, classes and events will be postponed or canceled.

In accordance with the JCCHS support for the public to safely engage in certain outdoor activities, which may include walking, hiking, running, biking and fishing, the Warrensburg Parks & Recreation (WPR) will keep all trails and grounds open and accessible to the public, to the extent reasonably consistent with Social Distancing Requirements.

All Community Center All-Access Pass Memberships, as well as any related charges, have been paused and credit for lost time will be applied to all memberships. Staff will be in contact with those affected by postponements and/or cancellations of sports, events, activities and rentals, and more information will be released as soon as possible.

We appreciate your understanding and support as we go through this ever-changing process. It is important to realize that this is not only for the health and well-being of our patrons, but also the protection of the most vulnerable of our neighbors and community members.

JOHNSON COUNTY CROP TO HOST ANNUAL HUNGER WALK

Warrensburg, Mo, March 25, 2020 - As we strive with our neighbors to stay healthy, Johnson County CROP will be approaching the Annual CROP Walk in a different matter this year—and in celebration of its 51st year.

We are encouraging all of our family and friends to walk with us VIRTUALLY. So we are urging all our churches and other organizations to still form teams. But we invite everyone to participate in some way in order to bring awareness to the issue of food insecurity and to raise funds to help people around the world with sustainable agriculture.

During 2019, 13,555 grocery carts were filled at the Food Center. In addition, 72 homeless individuals received meals. With so many of our neighbors struggling, you probably know someone personally who will go without at least one meal this week. But of course, they don't talk about it. And it may surprise you who is hungry.

So the link below can be used to submit your donation online. On April 25, we ask that you walk with us from wherever you are: your backyard, on your personal treadmill, on your block, up and down the stairwell in your house, etc. and post a photo on Instagram.

That way we can stay safe and still work together to care for others. We'll keep you posted and will share tidbits in the days leading up to April 25. See you on social media soon! www.crophungerwalk.org/warrensburgmo/

For information on how to form a team and how to get your team's donations to us, as well as how to order tee-shirts, contact Erica Jones-Collins at (660) 223-3260 or Johnsoncountycropwalk@hotmail.com. Let's work together to end hunger – one step at a time!

Old Drum & Friends Animal Shelter Closed to Public

(Warrensburg, MO) – Effective immediately, Old Drum & Friends Animal Shelter is closed to the public until further notice. The animals currently sitting in the shelter will continue to be fed and cared for by staff. However, the public will not be allowed to visit the shelter, volunteer, adopt a dog or cat, or surrender pets during this time.

Anyone who believes the shelter has their animal can contact staff directly to set up a time to pick them up. This will be on a strict appointment basis only.

“Please know that closing the shelter was a difficult decision, but is necessary to ensure the health and safety of staff. Keep in mind, all animals will continue to be well cared for. As much as the shelter would like to see these animals go to their forever home quickly, we need to ensure the safety of everyone by closing to the public,” said Kerri Lewis, shelter manager.

This closure will limit the amount of interaction between staff and the public. The public is encouraged to stay in their homes when possible. Information regarding the Coronavirus and up-to-date information from the City is available at <https://www.warrensburg-mo.com/777/COVID-19-Information-Page>.

safe and healthy environment amid the COVID-19 outbreak.

Beth Rutt, director of student activities, said the Campus Cupboard plans to be open 3-5 p.m. Wednesday and Thursdays throughout the rest of the school year to help individuals and families meet their food needs. It kicked off its new schedule March 25, and within the first 90 minutes it had served 92 students, enough to deplete the whole supply of pre-packaged food items for that day.

The Campus Cupboard opened its doors in October 2013. Through the generosity of private individuals, Harvesters food network, and local contributors, Walmart and ALDI grocery store, the campus distribution center serve about 500 individuals per month.

Rutt said individuals who arrived on Wednesday had access to pre-packaged bags of items that included soup and canned vegetables; chips, protein items such as plant-based burgers and chicken nuggets; bags of salad; hot dogs and buns; cookies and cupcakes. Drinks also were available. Some items, however, are getting harder to obtain due to the current high demand. Pickup is on the east side of the Student Recreation and Wellness Center “Tuesday is usually our bread day. We didn’t get anything,” Rutt said.

She encourages individuals who are interested in helping others to contribute to the Campus Cupboard, either through food donations or monetary contributions that will go to help purchase items for those in need. The center also has a current need for plastic bags it can use in pre-packaging.

Individuals who have questions or want to assist should call Rutt at 660-909-1870.

Ben Ong, left, a senior dietetics major from Malaysia, and Kevin Sneed, assistant director for intramural and club sports at the University of Central Missouri, helped collect pre-packaged bags of food that were made available by UCM’s Campus Cupboard March 25 to university students and employees in need.

Dani Wilcockson, a graduate assistant from Troy, Missouri who is majoring in kinesiology, gathers food items to be packaged and distributed by the Campus Cupboard, which is located in the University of Central Missouri Student Recreation and Wellness Center on March 25.

Quimby Honors Music Professor Through Pipe Organ Restoration Project

WARRENSBURG, MO (March 27, 2020) – Showing his appreciation for a former music teacher whose positive impact was never forgotten, Warrensburg resident Michael Quimby is honoring the memory of Professor Eleanor Shockey by restoring the pipe organ she once played at the University of Central Missouri. The owner of Quimby Pipe Organ Inc. is beginning the three-year project to breathe new life and enhance the Hendricks Hall pipe organ the same year he celebrates a company milestone.

Quimby founded his firm in 1970 while attending what was then known as Central Missouri State University. He studied vocal music under Shockey while earning his bachelor's degree in 1973 and his master's in 1975, both in music.

"I had many teachers, but as far as a teacher who prepared me for what the real world was like after graduation, she provided the most insight," Quimby said. "She was a very multifaceted musician. She was a singer and a pianist who could sight-read anything. She was an organist, and a great lady."

Restoration of the organ allows Quimby to show his gratitude for a great teacher and mentor, and it is also an opportunity to preserve an important piece of university history. The bulky instrument, designed with the pipes intentionally hidden from public view, was built by the Austin Organ Company in Texas, and was purchased by private gifts at a cost of $11,000. It was presented as a memorial to soldiers who died in World War I, and was officially dedicated in a ceremony that took place Jan. 19, 1924.

Quimby said his goal is to "refurbish the organ, enlarging and changing its character so that it will be an instrument capable of doing great organ and orchestral works." He added that his plan for restoration will actually make the organ better than it was brand new. When finished it will be an instrument with the style and signature sound that distinguishes Quimby pipe organs from those built by other companies.

Michael Sawyer, dean of the College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences, expressed his thanks for Quimby's gift, noting that the pipe organ restoration project complements other efforts to improve Hendricks Hall as a venue for campus music and theater events.

"Michael Quimby's generous gift marks an important landmark in the Hendricks Hall restoration and will be an integral component of the larger project," Sawyer said. "We will hold celebratory events when the organ restoration is finalized. We have already laid new carpet and plan to undertake the next phase of the project -- restoring the ornate ceiling and improving acoustics -- once our current multi-year donor pledges mature and we attract the remaining needed private and grant dollars to complete this first major step. The community has been very supportive and generous, and we are honored to have the opportunity to return this historic venue to its former splendor."

Quimby and his restoration team brings plenty of experience to the UCM project. From humble beginnings as a small tuning and maintenance firm, Quimby Pipe Organ Inc. has blossomed into a nationally known company. It employs approximately 10 individuals, including craftsmen working in areas such as woodshop, console design, voicing, pipe making, and general production. With the exception of solid state components such as keyboards, these employees make most of the organ parts by hand at the Warrensburg shop.

"We call this place a little family," Quimby said about the collaborative environment at his business. "They work like a family together, and we take care of them."

Quimby Pipe Organ Inc. engages in projects worldwide involving organs of various vintages, some dating back to the 1920s and even 1800s. From the firm's first organ build, Opus 1, an instrument created for the First Christian Church in Warrensburg in 1973, they most recently finished building their 76th instrument, a pipe organ that was installed at the Dunwoody United Methodist Church in Dunwoody, Georgia. Among a growing list of projects are newly built organs at the Cathedral at St. Paul in Minnesota, St. Paul's Cathedral in San Diego, Fourth Presbyterian Church in Chicago, and the First United Methodist Church, Athens, Georgia. This is in addition to a vast number of pipe organ refurbish and rebuild projects, including the organ at Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral in Kansas City and the Cathedral at St. John the Divine in New York City, which has a pipe case that is five stories tall.

Quimby said his appreciation for pipe organs dates back to his childhood. He remembers "pestering" his Father, securing books from the library at Oklahoma State University on the subject, after getting his first look inside one of the large instruments. "Magic" is how he described the experience -- a feeling that sticks with him 50 years after launching his pipe organ business.

Individuals who would like to know more about the organ project or how they can support the Hendricks Hall restoration may contact Michael Sawyer at 660-543-4750 or msawyer@ucmo.edu.

Care Connection senior centers will remain closed to public under federal guidelines; meals, other services continue

Care Connection for Aging Services' senior centers and central office remain closed to the public as they continue to provide home-delivered meals, pick-up meal service and telephone reassurance to homebound older adults.

These closures will remain in effect indefinitely in accordance with the President's Coronavirus Guidelines for America. Federal authorities on Tuesday issued a new advisory asking people to stay home unless they must go out for essential business; to practice social distancing; and to not congregate in groups of 10 or more until at least April 30. Several of Care Connection's 13 counties are under stay-at-home orders from their local governments.

"Each center will follow the federal guidelines. In case the state, county, or city government imposes more strict guidelines that last longer than the federal recommendations, centers will follow the directions of the local authorities," said Care Connection Executive Director Diana Hoemann. "We will reopen as soon as we get notification that it's safe to do so. All centers are adjusting their meal delivery routes to decrease direct contact with clients. Most Care Managers are working remotely and using the telephone to stay in contact with clients. Our health and wellness support staff members are looking for ways to give information to older adults – either via Facebook or www.goaging.org or by sending it to be hand delivered with meals."

The agency has reduced its central office staff to three but still is fielding phone calls and getting messages to remote staff as soon as possible. The central office number is 1-800-748-7826.

Because only employees and delivery volunteers are allowed in centers, older adults must call ahead to pick up meals. The service is available to people 60 and older. Center staff will work on a case-by-case basis to meet the needs of clients.

The agency has canceled or suspended exercise classes, services such as tax preparation and in-person care management, in-person educational programs, in-center volunteer activities, and fundraisers.

To arrange a meal pickup or delivery, or to arrange telephone reassurance for you or a loved one, call your local senior center during regular hours or the central office 1-800-748-7826. The agency also is making regular updates on its website, goaging.org, the Care Connection for Aging Services Facebook Page, and its emailed newsletter. To subscribe to the newsletter, email kfair@goaging.org.

"Our priority continues to be the safety of our staff, volunteers, and clients as we provide services to the most vulnerable older adults," Hoemann said.

Care Connection continues to share information from trusted partners such as the Missouri SMP, the state Department of Health and Senior Services, and the federal Centers for Disease Control. The Facebook page and goaging.org also will contain links to Internet sites that might provide entertainment, education and socialization online.

The Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services has set up a hotline (877-435-8411) for possible Coronavirus reporting.

Care Connection for Aging Services is a non-profit area agency on aging that serves people 60 and older in 13 West Central Missouri counties, including Bates, Benton, Carroll, Cedar, Chariton, Henry, Hickory, Johnson, Lafayette, Pettis, Saline, St. Clair and Vernon.

University of Central Missouri Offering Free Online Creativity and Innovation Courses

By Janice Phelan, March 30, 2020

The University of Central Missouri-Lee's Summit is joining forces with MindEdge to offer three free online courses focusing on creativity and innovation. The free classes are provided to help individuals during this time of global pandemic and social distancing. They are open to current UCM students as well as other adult learners interested in enrolling in the free courses. MindEdge, a national company specializing in higher education and professional development content, has partnered with UCM for several years to offer quality online courses.

All offerings are short-term continuing education courses that can be completed online. The courses range from three to seven contact hours. The free courses are open enrollment and self-paced.

Creativity in Teams and Organizations \(online\), five contact hours
Introduction to Critical Thinking \(online\), seven contact hours

Personal Creativity \(online\), three contact hours.

The Missouri Innovation Campus is a unique Lee's Summit facility resulting from a progressive partnership between the University of Central Missouri and the Lee's Summit R-7 School District. It houses the school district's Summit Technology Academy, a nationally recognized, career-focused high school program for juniors and seniors, as well as University of Central Missouri's degree and workforce development certificate programs.

UCM Workforce and Professional Education is recognized for its variety of face-to-face, online and hybrid courses designed to help adults launch a new career, expand existing skills and explore fields. Learn more about the university's professional education courses and in-demand career certificate programs on our website. Online courses are in areas such as healthcare, information technology, business and manufacturing.

UCM paused classes through March 30 due to the pandemic with all courses going online on this date. Summer session courses will also be offered online with summer enrollment now open.

UCM continues to monitor the evolving COVID-19 situation and its impact on our students and university community. Please visit the ucmo.edu/coronavirus for the latest information.

TIP: Do you know your communication frequency... and does it matter?

Vy Luu in How to Improve Communication Frequency With Your Remote Team says there is one metric to improve the morale of distributed teams and it's this:

"A high number of quality messages transacted within a team can be a reliable indicator of an excellent virtual leader. A study analyzed the communication frequency between managers and teams in different locations."

From the study Luu gives an example of one manager who stood out.

"The team he managed was noted for their 'excellent' morale. The difference between him and other managers was the high quality of interactions he had with his team. Quality, in this case, translated to 32 contacts per week with his employees. An achievement that outshone the others."

Using the leadership principles of Focus, Purpose, Guide, Change, Growth and Relationships Luu shares some very practical tips on communication, whether your relationships are face-to-face or with a remote team. It's a nine-minute read but we highly recommend it if you lead a team or will in the future.

TIP: "Alright, Mr. DeMille, I'm ready for my close-up."

This famous movie line by aging actress Norma Desmond (Gloria Swanson) from the movie Sunset Boulevard is something we can all relate to these days. We need to be ready for our close-up!

Brian X. Chen in "The Dos and Don'ts of Online Video Meetings" (New York Times) says "our homes and workplaces are merging into one". Even well known news personalities are broadcasting from their residences, doing their own makeup and using a virtual background or tasteful shot of a room in their home. ,

The rest of us are doing the same as we turn on our cameras and let others see inside our personal lives. Dressing down, having your pets participate, or joining a Zoom meeting without any "ready for your close up" preparations may be OK in the very short term. Remote work is not going away so we believe that raising the bar on how you present yourself on camera is a good thing to do.

There is a tsunami of useful tips on best practices. Check out Brian Chen's article and this link from our March 18th Shepa Learning tip where Highfive, in a blog post, How to use lighting like a pro for your video calls offers some good tips on lighting for at-home video conferencing.

Love What's Local is a collaborative campaign between Warrensburg Main Street, Warrensburg Chamber of Commerce and the City of Warrensburg to educate and encourage Warrensburg residents to purchase local goods and use local services. Loving What's Local helps create and maintain local jobs, support locally owned businesses and community nonprofits, encourage unique businesses that add community character, reduce environmental impact of out-shopping, and provide sales tax dollars to be spent locally. Love What's Local organizes annual events (listed below) to promote its mission.

@LoveWhatsLocalWarrensburg @lwlwarrensburg

Download this logo for free at www.warrensburg.org/who-we-are/ or warrensburgmainstreet.org/love-whats-local/

Restaurant Week

Restaurant Week is a promotion designed to encourage community members to Love What's Local by trying a new restaurant or menu item, or visiting an old favorite. Restaurant Week is not about getting a super deal on your meal, but provides a structured opportunity to let guests be more comfortable trying new things. A $10 Lunch and $25 Dinner is offered by participating restaurants.

Community Sidewalk Sale

The Community Sidewalk Sale is a two day event held in August. Businesses may have merchandise outside their store, or offer a sale inside their store. Participating businesses will have a Love What's Local flag in front of their business and will also be listed on the Love What's Local Facebook page.

Clean the Burg

This two day event is to encourage community volunteerism and to beautify our town. Residents, families, community groups, businesses, churches and teenagers who need to perform service hours can come up with a projects and implement them during the event. Those who participate are encouraged to share their photos on social media with the hashtag #CleanTheBurg.

Holiday Open Houses

Holiday Open Houses is a two day event where businesses display their holiday merchandise and offer deals and/or treats to customers. Offerings are listed in a guide that is posted on the Warrensburg Chamber website, the Warrensburg Main Street website and on the Love What's Local Facebook Page.

There's Strength in Numbers

A medical plan that lets small businesses join together for more plan options and lower rates

Say hello to the Chamber Benefit Plan.

A multiple employer welfare arrangement (MEWA) designed for small businesses who are members of a qualified Chamber of Commerce, like ours.

When it comes to providing employees with cost-saving health care coverage, small businesses are at a big disadvantage compared to their larger counterparts. Because of their smaller size, their claims risk pool is spread out across a much smaller employee population. That can result in higher, less stable insurance rates – and fewer viable plan choices.

Fortunately, there's a simple and affordable medical plan alternative. It's called the Chamber Benefit Plan and it's just one of the many advantages of joining our chamber.

Powered by the Missouri Chamber Federation, administered by The Health Plan (THP) with network access from HealthLink and Freedom Network select, the Chamber Benefit Plan is available to small group employers in Missouri who have 2 to 50 eligible employees.

Advantages that make a real difference:

- › Shared overall claims risk across a large pool
- › Competitive, medically underwritten rates
- › Fixed, predictable monthly payments
- › Choose from a variety of plan designs, including 10 PPO and three HSA options
- › Minimize the impact of ACA mandates while offering coverage to all eligible applicants, regardless of health status
- › Access to HealthLink/Freedom Network Select network
- › Coverage for claims run-out/terminal liability coverage
- › Simple, streamlined administration

Not a member of our chamber yet? We'll help you join today!
