Shout Out

Warrensburg
MISSOURI

Say hello to our new Intern,
Sebastian!

"My name is Sebastian Szczurowski and I'm currently attending the University of Central Missouri majoring in public relations. I am also about to go into my senior year during the Fall 2020 semester. I was born in Chicago but currently reside in the town of Lake in the Hills, IL. Some of my hobbies include going out and playing basketball or soccer with my friends or I like to stay home and make music on my computer during my free time. I really enjoy being in the PR program at my school because it has allowed me to improve my communication and organizational skills. I see myself potentially having some type of career as a public relations representative or a social media marketer for a larger company after I complete my internship and graduate."

"Glad to have our volunteer program back and running at Lifetime Animal Center. Sean worked on this sign late into the night in order to present it to us on his first day back. So sweet! Thank you Sean!" - Lifetime Animal Center

"Laura was awesome with helping us find our dream home. She was willing to go to different towns/cities to find the style of house we wanted. Once Laura figured out what we wanted, she didn't stop until we absolutely fell in love with it. I'm so glad we chose her to be our realtor!! Highly recommend!!"

Thank You!

"We found just the right sectional for our new home! After looking at NFM for a brown sectional, there was only one. We ordered it, and it got pushed back to a 2 month delay. My husband and I decided just to stop and look at Arwood's on our way home from the lake, and we found lots of brown sectional options. KENDRA was very helpful and made finding our sectional super easy! Heading home today with the sectional and very excited to relax on it!" - Emma G

"Thank you for everything you do Warrensburg Police Department. We are glad you enjoyed the power rings and are happy to show our appreciation for what you do for our community!"

Gene's Story: My Partner for Heart Attack Treatment and Recovery

Warrensburg, MO (June 11, 2020) — When Gene Burden started having incredible chest pain, it did not take long for his wife Donna to rush him to Western Missouri Medical Center's (WMMC) Emergency Room. Gene had a heart attack and this is the story of his amazing recovery.

Recognizing the Signs

In September of 2019, the Burdens were coming home from a trip to Arkansas, and Gene had not felt well. After sitting down for dinner that same evening, Gene began experiencing intense chest pain. As the Warrensburg Police Chief for 32 years, he had experienced pressure in his chest before, but this pain was different – it would not go away and was getting worse. Donna noticed his abnormal response to the pain, so she rushed him to WMMC's Emergency Room only a few blocks away. READ MORE

Tip: Yes, there are dumb questions.

TIP: Yes, there are dumb questions.

We have all heard that saying, “There are no dumb questions” but that’s not true.

If you are following up with someone whether it’s a potential client/customer, a job interview or informational interview or asking someone for a favor or some help --write down the questions you will be asking them. Now, if you can find the answer on Google, don’t ask it. Take your prep work a step further. Before the conversation, make sure you can answer these questions with a “yes”:

- Have you followed their company on all their social sites?
- If the person you are speaking with tweets, have you followed them and read previous tweets?
- If the company has a product that you could use, whether it’s an app or their latest beverage flavor have you tried it?

People are interrupted every 8 minutes while working, so can you make your follow up—which is an interruption—respectful of their time?

Tip: Small gift, big impact.

TIP: A 'small gift' can create big impact.

As Positive Networkers we encourage people to give 'small gifts', (usually non-monetary) as part of our ethos of discovering what you can do for someone else. It could be sending an article or being a connector, but we also suggest—when appropriate—a book they’d enjoy, a sample of your product, a box of cookies for their staff, or...

Here’s a story of how a 'small gift' mindset had an amazing outcome. Casca is a Canadian company that uses 3-D printers to create custom soles for their state-of-the-art sneakers. Founded by Braden Parker and Kevin Reid, these entrepreneurs explained:

“Our entire platform is built on Shopify, so we wanted to send a pair to Tobi Lutke (Founder and CEO of Shopify) as more of a thank you,” recalls Parker. “Wrote him a note, sent a pair, next thing you know we’re having a conversation and he ended up investing as well.”

Casca is now taking their business to the next level thanks to $4.66 million in venture funding, led by venture firm Khosla Ventures and Shopify founder Tobias Lutke. Lutke wouldn’t have known about Casca if a pair of their shoes hadn’t arrived on his desk as a thank you.

Video Meeting Etiquette: 7 Tips to Ensure a Great Attendee Experience

NOVEMBER 27, 2019 BY JOHN MONTGOMERY

There's just no substitute for good manners in all of our daily interactions, and they're certainly appreciated more than ever in workplace meetings. There are some age-old guidelines that comprise good meeting etiquette — being on time, maintaining eye contact, paying attention — and applying those same principles to our video meetings can go a long way toward a productive business environment. It can also help elevate your personal reputation into “great meeting host” territory.

Traditional business meetings are too often considered unproductive because there are so many delays and interruptions. Reliable, easy-to-use video conferencing platforms like Zoom have helped to restore meetings' reputations, but there are still ways to ensure all of your attendees get the most out of the allotted time.

Some of the most common-sense meeting decorum — avoiding eating and drinking, minding your body language, and being respectful to whoever is speaking — are no-brainers. So here are seven additional etiquette tips to help ensure a focused and effective Zoom Meeting.

1. Make sure to introduce everyone at the beginning.

Just like a real meeting or social event, you wouldn't initiate a conversation between two acquaintances who haven't met without introducing them. The same practice applies to a virtual meeting. Be sure to introduce all parties you are hosting at the beginning to create a welcoming environment and stimulate engagement.

2. Ensure that you have a clean, work-appropriate background.

You want your attendees' focus to be on the meeting content, not your messy office or your amazing art collection. By having a clean setting with work-appropriate art and decorations, you reduce the chance that attendees will get distracted. You should also try to attend the meeting from a quiet area that has minimal background noise and movement. Zoom's virtual background feature is an easy way to eliminate background distractions when you have to meet in a messy or busy location.

3. Look into the camera when talking instead of looking at yourself.

If you're looking at yourself on the screen while you're talking, it will seem like your attention is elsewhere. Direct eye contact into the camera while speaking gives attendees the impression that you are looking at them rather than off to the side, which creates an environment where everyone feels engaged and present in the conversation. Be sure to position your web camera and monitor at eye level so you can look into the camera and simulate that eye-to-eye connection with other attendees.

4. Eliminate distractions and focus on the agenda.

Notifications from messaging applications, ringtones, and applications running on your desktop can be distracting, which can make your attendees feel disrespected and undervalued. Mitigating these distractions helps keep the meeting focused and free from interruption.

5. Be aware of your audio and video settings.

Check whether your microphone is unmuted and that your camera is on to ensure that all attendees can hear you and see you when you speak. If you notice that someone in the meeting is speaking but their microphone is muted, you can alert them that they are muted by requesting that they unmute their audio in the Manage Participants tab. You also can manage how you start and join meetings — with video on, entering a meeting muted, etc. — in your Zoom Meeting Settings.

6. Only invite meeting participants who need to be there.

Inviting co-workers who don't need to participate or make decisions can be detrimental to the quality of the meeting. Because you can send other stakeholders a summary of the meeting via Zoom Chat, you can limit the attendee list and keep the meeting streamlined. As an invitee, make sure to review any meeting invites you receive to determine whether you actually need to attend. If not, request a recording of the meeting or a summary to get the info you need.

7. If you're the host, stick around.

The general rule for meeting hosts: Wait until everyone else has left the meeting before hanging up, so attendees can leave at their own pace and get any final words in before disconnecting. Zoom will assign an alternate host if the original host exits first, but it's not a good look. A host leaving everyone else in the meeting is much like bailing on your own party.

Practice good video meeting etiquette

You don't want to be the person in your organization known for scheduling lots of unproductive meetings. Practicing good video meeting etiquette is critical to ensuring that your meetings are professional, efficient, and valuable.

For other tips and tricks for hosting an excellent video meeting experience, schedule a 1-on-1 demo with a Zoom product specialist today.

UPDATE YOUR BUSINESS HOURS

Add the hours your business is open (i.e. the regular customer-facing hours of operation for a typical week). For days when you have unusual hours, like holidays or special events, set special hours. Learn more about hours guidelines:

To set hours, follow these steps:

- Sign in to Google My Business. If you have multiple locations, open the location you'd like to manage.
- Click Info from the menu.
- Next to "Add hours" or your current business hours, click Hours.
- Turn on each day of the week that your business is open.
- Next to each day of the week that your business is open, click Opens at, and then select the opening time.
- Next to each day of the week that your business is open, click Closes at, and then select the closing time.
- After you're done setting your hours, click Apply.

Set business hour breaks

To indicate your business hours include a break, create 2 entries for the same day with different times.

For example, if your business is open from 9 AM–2 PM on Saturdays, closed from 2 PM–5 PM, then open again from 5 PM–10 PM:

1. Turn on Saturday.
2. Next to "Saturday," click Opens at 9:00 AM.
3. Next to "Saturday," click Closes at 2:00 PM.
4. Next to "Saturday," click Opens at 5:00 PM.
5. Next to "Saturday," click Closes at 10:00 PM.

Set 24-hour business hours

Next to each day of the week that your business is open, click Opens at 24 hours.

Set special hours

On your computer, sign in to Google My Business.

- If you have multiple locations, open the location you'd like to manage.
- Click Info > Special hours. (You'll only find this section if you've already provided regular hours.)
- Next to an upcoming holiday, click Confirm hours. Or to choose a different date, click Add new date.
- Enter the opening and closing times for that day.
- To mark the location as closed all day, slide the circle to "Closed."
- If you're open 24 hours, click Opens at, and from the drop down menu select 24 hours.
- If you enter closing hours past midnight, make sure to set them properly.
- When you've finished entering all of your special hours, click Apply. Your special hours will appear to customers on Google only for the designated days.

- Log in to your Facebook account and go to your Business Page.
- Click About on the left side of your Business Page.
- Click Edit Page Info.
- Click the Hours tab at the top.
- Add or edit your hours and click Save Changes.

There's Strength in Numbers

A medical plan that lets small businesses join together for more plan options and lower rates

Say hello to the Chamber Benefit Plan.

A multiple employer welfare arrangement (MEWA) designed for small businesses who are members of a qualified Chamber of Commerce, like ours.

When it comes to providing employees with cost-saving health care coverage, small businesses are at a big disadvantage compared to their larger counterparts. Because of their smaller size, their claims risk pool is spread out across a much smaller employee population. That can result in higher, less stable insurance rates – and fewer viable plan choices.

Fortunately, there's a simple and affordable medical plan alternative. It's called the Chamber Benefit Plan and it's just one of the many advantages of joining our chamber.

Powered by the Missouri Chamber Federation, administered by The Health Plan (THP) with network access from HealthLink and Freedom Network select, the Chamber Benefit Plan is available to small group employers in Missouri who have 2 to 50 eligible employees.

Advantages that make a real difference:

- › Shared overall claims risk across a large pool
- › Competitive, medically underwritten rates
- › Fixed, predictable monthly payments
- › Choose from a variety of plan designs, including 10 PPO and three HSA options
- › Minimize the impact of ACA mandates while offering coverage to all eligible applicants, regardless of health status
- › Access to HealthLink/Freedom Network Select network
- › Coverage for claims run-out/terminal liability coverage
- › Simple, streamlined administration

Not a member of our chamber yet? We'll help you join today!

Chamber members have access to a full range of high-quality plans and options that can lead to significant savings. Contact us today to learn more.

Warrensburg
MISSOURI
Chamber of Commerce

The Warrensburg Chamber of Commerce's mission is to create opportunities that drive commerce and promote business. One way we help do that is to direct newcomers or visitors to Warrensburg to our local businesses! These publications are handed out at community events, given away in our Welcome Bags that go out to Whiteman Air Force Base and various other locations, housed in our office and posted on our website.

The Restaurant Guide contains a list of restaurants, coffee shops, wineries, etc. in Warrensburg, as well as our Chamber members in Knob Noster. Our Chamber members are listed in bold in this publication.

Our Relocation Information brochure lists essential businesses and organizations to contact upon arrival to Warrensburg. This brochure only contains our Chamber members' information.

If you know someone who has recently moved to the area, or if you know someone interested in moving to Warrensburg, please refer them to our website at www.warrensburg.org to find these resources!
