Survival House

Survival House celebrates two years of improvement

By Dustin Steinhoff, dustins@warrensburgstarjournal.com

WARRENSBURG—The Warrensburg Chamber of Commerce hosted a ribbon cutting for Survival House Wednesday, Dec. 30, to celebrate the positive changes the organization has made to its operations as well as new board leadership.

At the December Survival House Board of Directors meeting, Robin Allen was elected board president and Jeff Reynolds was elected board vice president.

Survival House Executive Director April Roller took on her role with the organization about two years ago. Since then, Roller said Survival House has experienced an uphill change with the way the organization interacts with clients as well as the public.

Roller said when she and Survival House Associate Director Sonya Walker began their time with Survival House, the organization had three collaborative relationships and since then, the number of these relationships has increased to 28.

Organizations such as University of Central Missouri refer potential clients to Survival House when they believe the organization would be able to assist the individual.

When Survival House receives clothing donations they can't make use of, they supply them to Big Brothers Big Sisters for their bulk clothing donations and BBBS in return supplies Survival House with items that their clients and shelters can make use of.

Roller said Survival House also supplies Clothing Closet and the Salvation Army with clothing and items that cannot be kept in the shelters' limited storage areas and they receive vouchers that clients can use to purchase items for themselves or their children.

Survival House also partners with the Clinton Samaritan Center to exchange items for perishable food in order to keep food costs down. READ MORE

Chamber hosts ribbon cutting for location change of Boss Body Fitness

By Dustin Steinhoff, dustins@warrensburgstarjournal.com

WARRENSBURG—The Warrensburg Chamber of Commerce hosted a ribbon cutting for Boss Body Fitness on Wednesday, Jan. 6, to celebrate the gym's change of location.

Boss Body Fitness, previously located at 1103 N. Holden St., Warrensburg, is now located at 405 E. Russell Avenue, Warrensburg.

Boss Body Fitness is a locally owned and operated gym offering services such as memberships, personal training and group classes.

Boss Body Fitness Owner Nicki Wall said she and her staff are invested in the success of each individual client and often give clients extra one-on-one time or advice to help them better themselves.

Wall took possession of her new building in October 2019 and after three months of remodeling work, the business was operating out of the new location in December 2019.

Wall said she had a solid vision for what she wanted her new place of business to look like and it took a lot of work to fulfill that vision.

"I kept that vision in mind and I kept working until I achieved that," Wall said. "I wanted it to be nicer than our last location to deliver better services and aesthetics to our customers. We went above and beyond to finish our construction here."

Wall said their new building has double the space in square footage than their old building in addition to more equipment and staff members.

Amid the COVID-19 pandemic, in order to still be able to serve customers, Boss Body Fitness also began offering virtual instruction and personal training through their website.

Key Realty

Owner/Broker Vance DeLozier

Key Realty, purchased by current ownership in 1977, has sold an incredibly large number of homes, lots, and investment properties in the Johnson County area over the years. Key Realty has always maintained a sales staff of experienced knowledgeable Realtors. Key has also sold a huge number of commercial properties around Warrensburg over the past 40 years. Consistency is what you'll find. The same Broker since 1977 in the same location on East Russell Road.

What made you want to get a membership with the chamber?

When I opened Key Realty in 1977 it was customary and really expected that Local Businesses would join the Chamber. We all worked together for the good of the Community. I never considered not joining. We pushed for Community Growth which certainly effects the Real Estate Business.

What do you love most about Warrensburg?

It's diversity, mostly influenced by the University. Has given our citizens so much to do and see over the years including concerts, sporting events, speakers and as the University has grown so has the Community.

Why are you passionate about your business?

If you work at something for 44 years, you must kind of like it. Real Estate is an important investment for individuals and businesses. When done correctly and with thought it can benefit that family, individual for business for years to come.

What makes your business unique?

A LOT of experience from within these walls. Experienced agents who have learned from previous experienced agents and fierce local pride.

How long have you owned your business?

This is Key Realty's 44th year at this same location. The location is about to get better (again) with the addition of a new fast food business next door.

How and why did you get started in this line of work?

I grew up around the Real Estate Business. My father, Dale DeLozier, operated DeLozier Realty since the late 1950's so I learned by watching one of the best.

What is your favorite aspect of your job?

Every day can be a new adventure. You never know who will call or come in the front door and how they will need your help. Our job is to be creative at times so I find that enjoyable.

In what ways has your business grown and developed over the years?

It's a constant learning process. New laws and interpretations of Real Estate Laws every year. We had our building hit by a tornado in 2001 and completely rebuilt/redesigned it that year. Our location has evolved and constantly changed. We were originally next to the original hotel next door, The Holiday Inn. It became the Best Western, then the University Inn, then a "pile of rocks" which I advertised as being "next to". And now next to the Fairfield Inn and a soon to be Food location. Of course, as prices have increased so has revenues, but I'm proud that we have maintained a good reputation for a long time.

In what ways has your business helped the local community?

My agents and I have served on many volunteer Boards and volunteered for many projects around the community and University. And we have brought quite a few businesses to this Community.

In your opinion, what is the most enjoyable part of being able to serve the Warrensburg Community?

This is my Hometown. I want to be proud of it and it's certainly worthwhile to do our best to make it the best possible hometown we can.

COVID-19 Vaccine in Johnson County

WARRENSBURG, Mo. (Dec. 15, 2020) – Johnson County Community Health Services (JCCHS) is currently working through plans on distribution and administering the COVID-19 vaccine. Phase 1-A for healthcare workers and long-term care facilities will begin soon.

The Department of Health and Senior Services (DHSS) allocated the Pfizer-BioNTech COVID-19 vaccine to counties across the state. The vaccine was authorized for emergency use by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration on Friday night, Dec. 11, 2020. The vaccine is a series of two doses administered three weeks apart.

The schedule for vaccine distribution according to the state is:

Phase 1-A: Healthcare Workers and long-term care facilities.

Phase 1-B: Emergency response and essential workers.

Phase 2: Additional Phase-1 populations if not vaccinated in Phase 1, high risk populations and potentially all Missouri residents (as availability increases).

Phase 3: All Missouri residents – expected in spring or early summer and is dependent on vaccine availability.

JCCHS is working closely with local partners for storage and county-wide distribution plans of the COVID-19 vaccine.

Below are common questions that are answered by the latest guidance issued by DHSS:

What do I do if I miss the second dose 21 days after the first dose? Patients who do not receive the second vaccination dose at 21 days should still receive that second dose as soon as possible thereafter.

Should you get the vaccine if you have already contracted COVID-19? Yes, but for both symptomatic and asymptomatic COVID-19 patients, you should defer vaccination until you have met criteria to discontinue isolation.

Can you receive the vaccine if you are pregnant?

Yes, pregnant females are recommended for the vaccine depending on the individual's risk of acquisition due to the level of community transmission, personal risk of contracting COVID-19 due to occupation or other activities, risks of COVID-19 to the mother and potential risks to the fetus, efficacy of the vaccine, known side effects of the vaccine and the lack of data about the vaccine during pregnancy. Special counseling and a 15-minute observation period after vaccination, if chosen, is recommended.

Women who are pregnant or breastfeeding are encouraged to discuss vaccination with their primary care physician or OB prior to receiving the vaccine. A physician's order could be required.

Should you have a pregnancy test or antibody test prior to receiving the vaccine?

Routine testing for pregnancy or antibody tests is not recommended in relation to vaccine use.

Can you get this vaccine if you are in quarantine due to an exposure with a positive COVID-19 case?

You should delay your vaccination if you have had a known SARS-CoV-2 (virus that causes COVID-19) exposure until your quarantine period has ended, unless residing in a congregate setting (health care/long-term care facility, correctional facility, homeless shelter, etc.).

Can you get the flu shot and COVID-19 vaccine at the same time?

There is no information on co-administration of this COVID-19 vaccine with other vaccines. The Pfizer vaccine should be spaced at least 14 days from any other vaccine.

If you have been vaccinated, can you stop from using other precautions?

While experts learn more about the protection that COVID-19 vaccines provide under real-life conditions, it will be important for everyone to continue using all the tools available to us to help stop this pandemic, like covering your mouth and nose with a mask, washing hands often, and staying at least 6 feet away from others. Together, COVID-19 vaccination and following CDC's recommendations for how to protect yourself and others will offer the best protection from getting and spreading COVID-19.

Who is not recommended for the Pfizer vaccine?

Those under age 16.

An individual who has experienced a serious reaction (e.g., anaphylaxis) to a prior dose of a COVID-19 vaccine or to any of its components. For information on vaccine components, refer to the manufacturers' package insert.

This vaccine is free or low-cost. Doses provided by the federal government are provided to Missourians at no cost. However, vaccinators can charge an administration fee for giving someone the shot. A maximum fee amount has not been set at this time. Most insurance companies will cover an administration fee.

Most importantly, Missouri residents cannot be denied a vaccine if they cannot afford the administration fee or do not have insurance.

Most reported side effects were mild and include pain at the injection site, tiredness, headache, muscle pain, chills, joint pain, and fever. Of note, more people experienced these side effects after the second dose than after the first dose.

Please visit <https://covidvaccine.mo.gov/> for more information.

JCCHS continues to recommend following safety precautions as the county moves toward vaccine distribution completion. These include the 3Ws. Wear a mask, watch your distance and wash your hands.

JCCHS large decals for your floor or wall are available at our office - stop by and pick yours up!

Six Month Update" to The Event Safety Alliance Reopening Guide Released

Back on May 11, 2020, about two months into the COVID-19 pandemic that closed most live event spaces around the world, the Event Safety Alliance released The Event Safety Alliance Reopening Guide. With contributions from more than 300 smart friends from every aspect of entertainment and sports production, ESA created detailed guidance regarding the health and safety issues likely to arise as event professionals contemplate reopening. We are gratified to report that the Reopening Guide has been downloaded over 30,000 times, translated into several languages, and cited by industry professionals and organizations around the globe.

Now that exactly six months of this interminable year have passed, we've released an update that highlights what we have learned about how event professionals might safely get through this pandemic, provides links to useful materials, and updates our recommendations based on the current science and experiences of those attempting to resume live events. We hope this update will serve as a useful companion to the original guidance.

The U.S. Small Business Administration, in consultation with the U.S. Treasury Department, will re-open the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loan portal to PPP-eligible lenders with $1 billion or less in assets for First and Second Draw applications on Friday, January 15, 2021 at 9 am ET. The portal will fully open on Tuesday, January 19, 2021 to all participating PPP lenders to submit First and Second Draw loan applications to SBA.

Earlier in the week, SBA granted dedicated PPP access to Community Financial Institutions (CFIs) which include Community Development Financial Institutions (CDFIs), Minority Depository Institutions (MDIs), Certified Development Companies (CDCs), and Microloan Intermediaries as part of the agency's ongoing efforts to reach underserved and minority small businesses.

On Friday, SBA will continue its emphasis on reaching smaller lenders and businesses by opening to approximately 5,000 more lenders, including community banks, credit unions, and farm credit institutions. Moreover, the agency also plans to have dedicated service hours for these smaller lenders after the portal fully re-opens next week. Learn more

COVID-19 Vaccination Survey

Johnson County Community Health Services and Johnson County Emergency Management have been working closely together to prepare for the COVID-19 vaccination rollout as the state prepares for Phase 1-B, Phase 2 and Phase 3. The definition for each phase can be found at the State of Missouri's COVID Vaccine website at <https://covidvaccine.mo.gov/>.

The distribution schedule is based on vaccine availability, with guidance from the Missouri Department of Health and Human Services (MO DHSS) and the Center for Disease Control (CDC).

JCCHS will provide the COVID-19 vaccine based on a phased approach pre-determined by the State of Missouri. Individuals will be identified to receive the vaccine based on risk status and occupation, and those pre-defined phases by DHSS.

It has not yet been determined by the state when the county can begin vaccinating those eligible in Phase 1-B. Johnson County will move into each phase when approved by the State of Missouri.

Please use this survey HERE to provide us with the number of employees and/or volunteers interested in receiving the vaccine. Please be as specific as possible when entering this information. The information you provide in this survey will be essential for planning as vaccination becomes available and clinics are scheduled.

How has Americare responded to the pandemic?

When others backed away from providing services, we leaned in – and we're prepared to handle what comes our way.

Top 20 nationally in customer and employee satisfaction

Our response has been swift and steady from the beginning.

At Americare Senior Living, our extensive management experience and strong financial footing allowed us to quickly procure PPE, gather internal data, and distill information to our communities so they could concentrate on caring for residents.

- Proactive screening of staff and residents before it was mandated
- Rigorous guidelines with continuous screening of residents and staff
- Consulting agreement with Metro Infectious Disease Consultants (MIDC) for guidance on all our policies and procedures, including pre-admission and post-admission testing of new residents
- Support our residents and one another with information, materials and manpower
- Immediate, open and honest communication with families

Experience That Matters. We have been serving seniors and their families with upscale senior living and long-term care services since 1981. As long-term care professionals, we have taken the time to put the best systems in place.

Press Releases

The Missouri Chamber prepared this agenda with polling and input from more than 500 CEOs and top business leaders from across the state. Their responses show that the pandemic has left employers increasingly pessimistic about the state's business climate. Likewise, businesses enter 2021 expecting to invest less and hire fewer workers than a year ago.

The Missouri Chamber is urging lawmakers to focus on changing this trajectory by passing the reforms included in the 2021 Legislative Agenda, with a special focus on three critical needs:

- Stopping the threat of COVID-19 litigation, which is a major new concern for employers.
- Fixing Missouri's crumbling transportation infrastructure, which employers increasingly view as a critical issue.
- Enhancing the state's ability to train and attract a workforce that empowers growth.

Governor Parson Releases Funds Mostly Aiding Deferred Maintenance at UCM

WARRENSBURG, MO (Jan. 7, 2021) – Missouri Governor Mike Parson has announced the release of $68 million in Federal Budget Stabilization Fund appropriations for infrastructure and capital improvement programs for Higher Education Institutions, which include the University of Central Missouri.

Through this release of funds, UCM will receive approximately $5 million that must be spent on deferred maintenance projects on campus. A project list from UCM has been submitted with proposed items and awaits approval from the state's Office of Administration. Once approval is received, the identified deferred maintenance items will be addressed over the next several months. READ MORE

TIP: The new normal, hop on board!

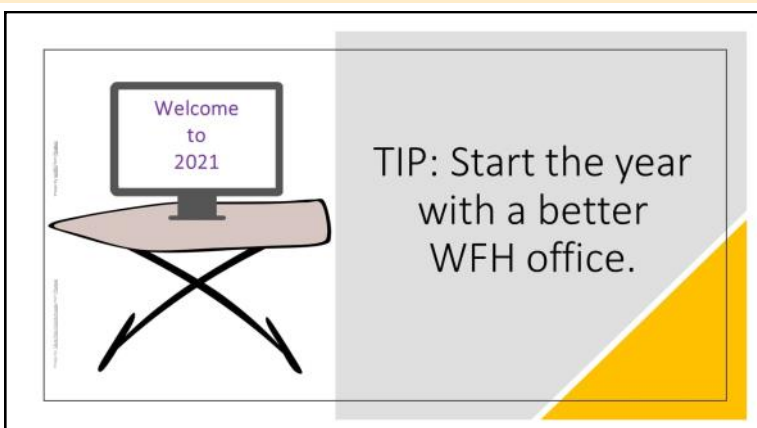

Hybrid-Networking™ Definition: Combining the best practices of face-to-face and remote connecting and engagement in business networking, internal networking and personal networking in a post-pandemic world.

Before the pandemic, working remotely was happening but at a glacial pace. Many C-Suites had not wrapped their heads around the idea. But then BAM! during a week in March everyone—and we mean everyone—began working from home.

And it's not going back to the old way. Research says that a third of people will be working remotely from now on. That means going forward there will always be some colleagues, clients, potential customers or contacts who you will be working (and building relationships) with remotely. Like an octopus you'll be expected to use all your new 'arms' — the tools and apps of remote connecting as well as your face-to-face skills.

Remote connecting and networking is here to stay for the rest of your career. For example, from now on you are going to be a 'broadcaster' so get your video setup sorted out and master this communication skill asap.

2021 Goal: Be the best hybrid-networker you can be by reaching out to people with all your new-found tentacles.

TIP: Start the year with a better WFH office.

After nine months of lifestyle bloggers and their awesome work from home offices, let's do a reality check. Most people don't have an extra empty light-filled room where they can create a dream WFH office. Most home offices look more like the photos in this article, from ironing boards to kitchen counter stand-up 'desks'. That's the real world and it's going to be our world at least for the next little while. And that 'third space', working from your local coffee shop, nope...none of that for a while.

Steps to improve your WFH space:

1. Take a photo of your present space.
2. Figure out what you need to organize the space. Decide if it's really the best spot for your WFH office.
3. Clean up as much clutter as you can--the Lego, cookie tins, wrapping paper, and gifts that you had to put somewhere.
4. If you aren't living in a light-filled room, do you need a SAD light?
5. Does your 'office' have to be transportable? If so, have a carry-all to move to another space when that 'office' is being used for dinner or homework.
6. Take a photo of your new clutter-free organized office space and get crackin' on 2021.

There's Strength in Numbers

Say hello to the Chamber Benefit Plan.

A multiple employer welfare arrangement (MEWA) designed for businesses like yours.

When it comes to providing employees with cost-saving health care coverage, small businesses are at a big disadvantage compared to their larger counterparts. Because of their smaller size, their claims risk pool is spread out across a much smaller employee population. That can result in higher, less stable insurance rates — and fewer viable plan choices.

Fortunately, there's a simple and affordable medical plan alternative: the Chamber Benefit Plan.

Powered by the Missouri Chamber Federation, administered by The Health Plan (THP) with network access from HealthLink and Freedom Network select, the Chamber Benefit Plan is available to small group employers in Missouri who are members of a qualifying Chamber of Commerce and have 2 to 50 eligible employees.

Advantages that make a real difference:

- › Shared overall claims risk across a large pool
- › Competitive, medically underwritten rates
- › Fixed, predictable monthly payments
- › Choose from a variety of plan designs, including 10 PPO and three HSA options
- › Minimize the impact of ACA mandates while offering coverage to all eligible applicants, regardless of health status
- › Access to HealthLink/Freedom Network Select network
- › Coverage for claims run-out/terminal liability coverage
- › Simple, streamlined administration

Not a chamber member? We'll help you join one today!

Chamber members have access to a full range of high-quality plans and options that can lead to significant savings.

Let's get started. Contact us today to learn more.

MISSOURI
Chamber of Commerce

The Warrensburg Chamber of Commerce's mission is to create opportunities that drive commerce and promote business. One way we help do that is to direct newcomers or visitors to Warrensburg to our local businesses! These publications are handed out at community events, given away in our Welcome Bags that go out to Whiteman Air Force Base and various other locations, housed in our office and posted on our website.

The Restaurant Guide contains a list of restaurants, coffee shops, wineries, etc. in Warrensburg, as well as our Chamber members in Knob Noster. Our Chamber members are listed in bold in this publication.

Our Relocation Information brochure lists essential businesses and organizations to contact upon arrival to Warrensburg. This brochure only contains our Chamber members' information.

If you know someone who has recently moved to the area, or if you know someone interested in moving to Warrensburg, please refer them to our website at www.warrensburg.org to find these resources!
