Townsquare Media

2209 S Limit Ave
Sedalia, MO
(660) 826-1050

What made you want to get a membership with the chamber?

To ensure we're connected with and supporting the Warrensburg business community.

What do you love most about Warrensburg?

Character...from historic buildings to small business.

Why are you passionate about your business?

We have a loudspeaker on-air and online through our 3 radio stations to connect with the community...to entertain and inform.

What makes your business unique?

As part of the 3rd largest media company in the US, Townsquare Media Sedalia surrounds our audience with business' message on-air, through custom-built websites and complete digital advertising.

How long have you owned your business?

Townsquare Media is now in our 11th year.

How and why did you get started in this line of work?

I started at a small radio station in a town about the size of Warrensburg where each of us were salespeople, commercial producers, news people and on-air. It gave me the chance to interact with so many people and come to a job where no two days are alike.

What is your favorite aspect of your job?

Learning about a huge variety of local businesses and what the owners have done to soar.

In what ways has your business grown and developed over the years?

11 years ago we were primarily able to offer just on-air advertising. Today we offer a suite of digital services for advertisers. Additionally, our 3 radio station websites have met a need for online local news at no cost to consumers...we reach more than 150,000 local people monthly through these sites

In what ways has your business helped the local community?

We are involved in countless campaigns and fundraisers for local charities, Churches, schools and others. We use the loudspeakers of our stations to get that news to our audience.

In your opinion, what is the most enjoyable part of being able to serve the Warrensburg Community?

The variety of opportunities the Chamber presents is so exciting and we have enjoyed being part of community events.

Fazoli's open for business in Warrensburg

By Dustin Steinhoff
dustins@warrensburgstarjournal.com

WARRENSBURG — Fazoli's of Warrensburg opened its doors for its official opening day on Tuesday, Sept. 28. The restaurant is located at 335 E. Russell Ave., Warrensburg.

The Warrensburg Chamber of Commerce hosted a ribbon cutting ceremony prior to the restaurant's opening on Monday, Sept. 27.

Fazoli's of Warrensburg is the 158th franchise restaurant for Fazoli's. The company also has 57 company restaurants for a total of 215 restaurants in operation.

Warrensburg's Fazoli's is owned by Allison and Josh Kroeger, who also own Sedalia's Fazoli's, which opened in May 2020.

Allison Kroeger said Warrensburg was the ideal spot for their second location because she believed the area was in need of an option for Italian fast food. "We thought it (Warrensburg) was a great town that needed an extra option," Allison Kroeger said. Allison and Josh Kroeger said some additional positive factors included being able to serve the University of central Missouri community and the close proximity to their residence in Sedalia.

RISE Chamber hosts ribbon cutting for Worry-free with Chelsea Lee

By Dustin Steinhoff
dustins@warrensburgstarjournal.com

WARRENSBURG — The Warrensburg Chamber of Commerce hosted a ribbon cutting ceremony to welcome Worry-free with Chelsea Lee of Action Realty Co. as a chamber member on Tuesday, Oct. 5.

Lee became a part of Action Realty in September 2020 and began offering her services shortly after, when she received her license in October 2020. When looking for a place to provide her services, Lee said she chose to join Action Realty as she was impressed by how long the business has served the community and she enjoyed the friendliness of the other agents.

"The other agents were very knowledgeable and helpful throughout the process of the application, so it felt like a really good fit," Lee said.

Lee said one of her main focuses as a real estate agent is putting her customers first.

"I always put my clients first," Lee said. "I think a huge deal for me is making sure that their needs and what they want comes before my pay and some of the other things other realtors might not find as important."

TIP: Use positive vocal cues on your next call.

When you're on a call do you ever feel frustrated that clients or colleagues don't get what you're saying even though you've chosen your words carefully?

The reason could be that you are sending mixed-messages. This happens due to paralinguistics, vocal signals that go beyond words. They impact how verbal messages are understood because they provide clues about true feelings and intent. Carol Kinsey-Goman Ph.D., international leadership coach and author, is convinced of the power of paralinguistic communication. She says: "I've seen managers give unflattering feedback while still exhibiting warm feelings through their tone of voice – and those who were being critiqued still felt positively about the overall interaction. I've also seen managers offer words of praise and appreciation in such a flat tone of voice that none of the recipients felt genuinely acknowledged or appreciated."

In a recent article, Carol offers six great tips on breathing, voice modulation, body posture, and speech convergence to ensure your vocal cues are positive.

Our favourite? Modulate your voice. Vary your vocal range, tone, and volume.

TIP: Great way to have better balance in a conversation.

This very simple acronym, IFR, will help anyone move a conversation along in a natural way. And let's face it, who hasn't been stumped in a conversation, particularly if the other person isn't lobbing the conversational tennis ball back to you.

David Morin, founder of Social Pro, gives this advice:

IFR stands for:

1. Inquire – Ask a sincere question
2. Follow-up – Ask a follow-up question
3. Relate – Share something about you to break up your questions and keep the conversation balanced

IFR dovetails nicely with our concept of Positive Networking® which is about being interested in the other person and hoping--by asking questions--you may be able to add value to their life, business or career. Or, simply create some rapport and make a better connection!

Dealing with Modern Cybersecurity Threats: How to Protect Your Organization

Businesses are changing the way they operate. With the interconnectedness of software, people, and organizations, the digital world is fast-paced and ever-changing. That is why security in the online sphere is of utmost importance. As the world moves into digital technology, the headlines are filled with incidents of companies dealing with modern cybersecurity threats. This includes security breaches, ransomware attacks, and hacking. The problem is media coverage only occurs after drastic breaches. It is essential to identify and address vulnerabilities before such incidents happen. The alternative could have fatal consequences.

The Colonial Pipeline Breach

To discuss the far-reaching impact breaches can have, let's look at the Colonial Pipeline breach.

What is Colonial Pipeline?

Colonial Pipeline is one of the significant pipeline operators in the United States. Founded in 1962, Colonial Pipeline is responsible for 45% of East Coast's fuel supply. This includes gasoline, diesel, residential heating, and jet fuel, as well as military supplies. In fact, Colonial Pipeline transports over 1– million gallons of fuel every day across an area that spreads from Texas to New York.

About the Attack

On May 6th, 2021, Colonial Pipeline was the victim of a cyber-attack. Hackers infiltrated the US gasoline pipeline giant and almost 100 gigabytes of data were compromised and computers were locked. The attackers demanded a ransom payment of nearly $5 million in Bitcoin to decrypt the systems and resume operations.

Impact of the Attack

The hack caused Colonial to shut down the pipeline. This caused massive fluctuations in fuel prices across the East Coast. In the five days that the pipeline was shut down, the national average for a gallon pushed past $3. This was the first time we've such prices since 2014.

"The shutdown of the Colonial Pipeline by cyber-criminals highlights a massive problem — many of the companies running our critical infrastructure have left their systems vulnerable to hackers through dangerously negligent cybersecurity," shared Sen. Ron Wyden (D-OR). "Congress must take action to hold critical infrastructure companies accountable and force them to secure their computer systems."

Organizations need better systems in place to combat and prevent such attacks. However, while cybersecurity is a part of most major organizations' policies, the bare minimum is being done.

Why You Need to Focus on Cybersecurity

Cybersecurity matters in today's world. Here are a few reasons why organizations should make it a part of their policies.

1. Data breaches are costly. The average breach can cost companies $3.86 million or more. This is a massive price for businesses to pay when breaches can be avoided by using the correct practices and trusted technology partners.
2. Companies have a responsibility to protect employee and client data. Data breaches can compromise the privacy and sensitive data of both employees and customers, reducing the overall trust in the organization.
3. The reputational damage after a cybersecurity attack is massive. This takes away existing clients and makes any potential clients wary. More than 60% of SMBs close after a cyber-attack due to loss of reputation and high fiscal costs.

How Can a Trusted Technology Partner Help?

Combating cybercrime is not an easy journey. That is where a trusted technology partner can save you and your organization.

1. A technology partner will help you protect your business by identifying any vulnerabilities in the existing network infrastructure. They will also help to develop solutions and action plans to mitigate these risks.

UCM Theatre and Dance Offers Season Tickets for 2021-2022 'Live On Stage!'

WARRENSBURG, MO (Sept. 30, 2021) – University of Central Missouri Theatre and Dance has announced the availability of 2021-2022 season tickets through Oct. 16. After a year of limitations to live performance, UCM Theatre and Dance is excited to invite the community back into the theater and to enjoy productions "Live On Stage!"

To ensure the safety of everyone, UCM theaters will be limited to 75% capacity and all seating will be general admission to provide audiences the opportunity to socially distance. Currently, masks will be required for audiences. COVID-19-related policies will be re-evaluated throughout the academic year by university leadership and could possibly be changed. Current COVID policies can be found on the UCM website, <http://www.ucmo.edu/news/media-resources/corona-virus-covid-19/faq/>.

The past 18 months have been quite a journey for theatre practitioners everywhere. With this in mind, UCM Theatre and Dance has selected five plays and musicals for this season that are about the journeys people take to overcome life's challenges. Season tickets are available for five exciting shows. A season subscriber receives substantial savings, choice seating, ticket insurance and exchange privileges.

Season tickets include four mainstage productions and the dance concert for $80 for the general public; $60 for faculty, staff, senior citizens, and military; and $40 for students.

JCCHS Offering Booster Shots of the Pfizer-BioNTech COVID-19 Vaccine

WARRENSBURG, MO. (Oct. 8, 2021) – Johnson County Community Health Services (JCCHS), in accordance with the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services' (DHSS) amended state's standing order, is offering booster shots for those who qualify.

JCCHS offers COVID-19 vaccines every Wednesday during a Walk-in Wednesday COVID Vaccine Clinic from 1 to 4:30 PM in the JCCHS building at 723 PCA Road in Warrensburg, Mo. No appointment is needed.

In addition, JCCHS is hosting a walk-in COVID Vaccine Clinic on Tuesday, Oct. 12 from 1 to 4 PM at the Community Activity Center in Holden, Mo.

During all clinics, qualifying individuals can receive:

- First or second dose of either Pfizer or Moderna, or
- A third dose of the same brand of COVID-19 vaccine for those with certain medical conditions that suppress the immune system (the term third dose refers to people with severely compromised immune systems who may not have gotten the level of protection they need from the first two doses. The third dose provides that level of immunity), or
- A booster shot of the Pfizer vaccine (a booster shot is recommended due to concern that the effectiveness of the vaccine decreases over time and may not protect against a new strain, such as delta).
- Following federal guidance issued from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), the DHSS has amended Missouri's standing order for Pfizer-BioNTech COVID-19 vaccine administration. Missourians who received the Pfizer vaccine can receive a booster shot at least six months after their initial series based on CDC guidance:

WMMC Celebrates 9th Annual Ladies' Night

Ladies' Night Out Honorary Survivor Michelle Schubert sitting on pink Mustang

Warrensburg, MO (October 6, 2021)—Western Missouri Medical Center (WMMC) kicked off Breast Cancer Awareness month by hosting its 9th Annual Ladies' Night Out (LNO) Event on October 5 at the UCM Multipurpose Building. This event promoted breast health awareness and encouraged women to get their annual mammogram through fun giveaways, raffles, and a keynote speaker.

This annual event strives for two goals – to raise awareness on the importance of preventative screenings and to raise funds for the WMMC Foundation to support and enhance the Medical Center's mission. LNO raised $18,735, and had 474 people purchase tickets to help raise awareness for breast cancer. This event resulted in 82 women registering for their annual mammogram. Overall, this event produced more than 500 in attendance including ticket holders, volunteers and vendors.

LNO ticket holders also received a rose gold tote with goodies for all the attendees as well as a custom t-shirt. There were over 15 raffles given away, including $1,000 in cash prizes to women who scheduled their mammogram.

Muleskinner Adviser Julie Lewis Named Recipient of 2021 Adviser Award

WARRENSBURG, MO (Oct. 11, 2021) – Julie Lewis, assistant instructor of digital media production and faculty adviser for the University of Central Missouri's student-led newspaper, the Muleskinner, is being recognized as one of the College Media Association's 2021 Best Media Advisers in the nation.

Lewis was one of three Honor Roll Advisers recognized from four-year institutions. Honor Roll Adviser Awards are reserved for professionals who have advised for five or fewer years. The College Media Association is a collegiate media organization that strives to support student journalists and their advisers. Since 1954, the association has served its nationwide member base with educational sessions, annual conventions, networking opportunities and more.

"As the managing editor, Julie and I work closely together and my experience with her has been amazing. Her passion for journalism and empowering students is so refreshing," said Bethany Spitzmiller, managing editor for the Muleskinner. Spitzmiller believes Lewis entrusts her student journalists to enable the staff to carry out responsibilities for producing a newspaper. "She has students lead everything and make all the decisions and she empowers them to do that, which is amazing."

The Muleskinner publishes monthly issues with ongoing online coverage published during regular academic weeks. Lewis, who took over the role of adviser for the publication last year, works with student writers, editors and designers who seek to provide consistent and engaging content covering the wider campus community.
