Compass Health Network

"Compass Health Network began implementing Individualized Placement and Support (IPS) in 2010 and have since expanded to five sites in Clinton, Rolla, Warrensburg, Wentzville, and most recently, Jefferson City. All of their established sites have earned exemplary scoring for their most recent reviews and their baseline review for their newest site was in the high range of good fidelity. This consistency of excellence is remarkable for multiple sites across one agency and has led to some of the highest employment outcomes in the state. They are to be commended for aligning the standards of fidelity with their provision of services."

Tip:
How to make friends at the office when you work remotely.

TIP: If you read one article on networking, this is it.

And it is not ours, it's from Herminia Ibarra. In her Harvard Business Review article Professor Ibarra has nailed the top misconceptions people have about networking. After two decades of teaching the skills of networking, we agree completely with her top five:

Misconception 1: Networking is mostly a waste of time.

Misconception 2: People are either naturally gifted at networking or they are not, and it's generally difficult to change that.

Misconception 3: Relationships should form naturally

Misconception 4: Networks are inherently self-serving or selfish.

Misconception 5: Our strong ties are the most valuable.

We think this is a valuable article for anyone who is onboarding at your firm and likely has these misconceptions about networking.

TIP: How to make friends at the office when you work remotely.

Meena Thiruvengadam in her blog post Yes, You Can Still Make Friends at Work If You're Remote, says "Just because there's no seltzer dispenser to gossip around, no cafeteria to gather in, or no office to go to, doesn't mean you can't make friends with your colleagues".

Introducing yourself is often the hardest part--you wonder who to reach out to, and then what's your reason for reaching out. Here's some good advice from Meena.

Introduce yourself.

Start by reaching out to the people on your team. Next, reach out to your broader department and to other colleagues you find yourself collaborating with on projects.

If you're struggling to come up with the right words, ask your new colleague to tell you more about their role or their team.

Once you have reached out, perhaps having established a virtual coffee date or Slack channel, now try and make that human connection -- show your personality, share things about yourself, just like in-person friendships.

Meena's advice:

Be human.

This is how my anxiety helped me learn how to work better

Leanna Lee lived with anxiety and situational depression for over 15 years. Seems like a recipe for disaster—especially since she runs her own business—but here's what she's learned to be successful.

This leadership style is powerful and effective

There are four distinct characteristics that allow these leaders to make a lasting impact on the lives of others.

Western Missouri Medical Center Auxiliary Awards $5,500 to Local Scholarship Winners

Warrensburg, MO (May 9, 2022)—Each spring the Western Missouri Medical Center (WMMC) Auxiliary sponsors the Health Care Career Scholarships for students who are pursuing or furthering their education in any health care field. Recipients are selected by the WMMC Auxiliary Scholarship Committee based on financial need, scholastic ability, work plans and a demonstrated interest in health care. The WMMC Auxiliary has awarded one scholarship of $500 and five scholarships of $1,000 to six students total.

This year's $1,000 recipients include: Amy McCartney, Pediatric Nurse Practitioner program at Maryville University; Kara Pringle, Paramedic program through Johnson County Ambulance District; Claire Sobaski, Dietetic Internship to Yale New Haven Hospital to complete her Registered Dietitian degree; Christine Sturgill, Knob Noster High School 2022 graduate attending University of Nebraska-Lincoln for Prehealth; Rachel Vogelsmeier, Bachelor of Science in Psychology and Child & Family Development at University of Central Missouri (UCM).

Madelyn Morgan, Bachelor of Science in Nursing at UCM, is the recipient of the $500 scholarship. Sales from the Wishing Well Gift Shop has always been the largest income source for the Auxiliary and helps fund these health careers scholarships. This past year has allowed for increased sales, with the opening of the entrances, and better access to the community to shop at the Gift Shop. The Wishing Well Gift Shop is open to the public from 9am-5pm, Monday through Thursday and 11am-4pm on Friday. Through the pandemic, the Auxiliary has remained determined to fund scholarships at the same level as in years past. From the 26 qualified applicants this year, it was easy to see the financial need was great.

As educational expenses rise and the demand for health care workers increase, there is a continuing need for additional funds. Donations are being sought by the WMMC Auxiliary to ensure opportunities to provide additional monetary assistance for our future health care providers. Donations may be made to the WMMC

Auxiliary for the Health Career Scholarship Fund and sent to WMMC Auxiliary, 403 Burkarth Road, Warrensburg, Missouri, 64093.

Mission

The Greater Warrensburg Area Chamber of Commerce create opportunities that drive commerce and promote business.

Purpose

The Greater Warrensburg Area Chamber of Commerce is a community that supports business, values education and empowers leaders.

The Chamber Flash

is a twice-monthly email publication, out on the FIRST and THIRD Fridays of each month. It's a great way for Chamber members to share information about their businesses! It also keeps members up to date with member benefits, networking events and other activities.

Space in the Chamber Flash is an included member benefit for Chamber members only. E-mail your print ready ad in JPG format to chamber@warrensburg.org by COB Tuesday for Friday publication.

You must resubmit your flyer each week you would like it published.

The Chamber Flash is compiled and written by Communications Coordinator, Rebekah Mauschaugh.
